Michele has been unrelenting in her quest to rebuild her entire life following a tragic accident on these seven principles and her story leaves a footprint that is both rich and authentic. Along with PERSISTENCE Michele reminds us that life needs to be lived and enjoyed, just like the taste of chocolate! Making sure that we enjoy the richness of each and every piece in the pursuit of success!

What is one to say... The legacy of your misfortune is the inspiration you bring to all those who come in contact with you. Who could not be inspired by your courage and determination.
Steve Church, Director Poly-Tech Industrial Services

Michele is so strong and is a perfect example of what a leader should be. Ever since meeting her and hearing her story, she made me want to help others.
YOUNG LEADERS FOUNDATION, Adelaide Convention Centre

Michele had our year 10 students spellbound from the beginning to the end! The applause that followed was long and spontaneous. Our feedback forms revealed that Michele was by far the most popular of all our speakers on the day.
Julie Potts Immanuel College

At the very least you will be inspired by her persistence and endless climb from a life of shattered beginnings to that of the successful pocket rocket she is today! And she's not finished yet!

But there is so much more that she brings. Her poignant presentation will provide proven strategies of some 24 years in the making. Strategies that are ready and adaptable for any member of your team and any size or style of business operation. Strategies that will increase the vitality, productivity as well as the bottom line!

Michele Colmer will...

- Get you thinking about your goals
- Increase your vitality and productivity
- Make you realise your true worth
- Challenge your level of commitment
- Show you how you can overcome any obstacle

and... Meet you in your seat with honesty and integrity

With a delightfully wicked sense of humour Michele will add colour to your next sales team meeting, business seminar or conference.

Speaking to young leaders, the business sector, secondary education students, and members of staff, Michele's audiences all agree her message is powerful and inspires and motivates all to enjoy life to the fullest.
